

Name or Reviewer Username: Anonymous

School: Yorba Linda High

Grade: Senior

Book Title: What Happened That Night

Book Author: DeAnna Cameron

Rating (1-lowest to 5-highest): 4

Paragraph 1

What Happened That Night by DeAnna Cameron is an intriguing mystery thriller about Clara Porterfield, a girl whose life takes a turn for the worse when a young and popular student named Griffin Tomlin is murdered in her town. Clara's sister, Emily, is suspected of killing Griffin. Everyone in the community, including Clara's family members, wants to know the real story behind Griffin's death. As Clara finds herself under immense pressure from her classmates and dealing with all the secrets of that particular night, she starts discovering more about those around her.

Paragraph 2

I thought that this book was interesting in that regard that it always left me wondering what would happen next. Another good thing about this story is the presence of mystery, which made the author unveil information little by little, forcing me to analyze all the characters in the book. Clara was one of the characters that I enjoyed for the reason that she was a very realistic character and depicted the difficulty in survival when put under certain circumstances. Clara became my favorite character for the reason that she dared to find an answer even through her many trials.

Third Paragraph:

I would definitely suggest this book to those readers who love mystery and suspense as well as the thrill of discovering truths. The book will surely be an intriguing one for teenagers who love suspense and mystery novels with elements of emotion to them. There appear to be a number of similarities that this book has with other thrillers that teenagers tend to read based on the theme of secrets, relationships, and the impact of an incident on their lives. In general, this book is surely worth reading.